

WELL COLLEGE TEAM MODEL

LIAISON

LIAISONS are Well College "connectors".

- They are outward-facing and seek to remove loneliness in others by inviting the new faces they encounter into The Well College community.
- They are an active Covenant Community Member at The Well or are in the process of becoming one.
- They consistently attend Well College Team Huddles, where they learn the relational skills required to fulfill their role.
- They consistently attend Wednesday Morning Prayer.
- They are the relational glue of our College Ministry.

LABORER

LABORERS are Well College "evangelists".

- They seek to grow in evangelism and will be equipped on how to share their faith.
- They lead Wednesday morning prayer & weekly Team Huddles.
- They lead on-campus prayer walks & Discovery Bible Studies.
- They seek to share the gospel with non-believers that attend Well College events.
- They are the missional glue of our College Ministry.
