

TWO KINGDOMS

The Two Kingdoms is a way you can share the gospel in about a minute! You can speak it or draw as well if you'd like. The question presented at the end can lead to further discussion and follow-up conversations. This tool is also great to use with individuals with an Islamic background.

EXAMPLE SCRIPT: “What I have come to know is that there are two kingdoms—a kingdom of darkness and a kingdom of light.

Unfortunately, we are born into the kingdom of darkness, and Satan is the king, the ruler of that kingdom of darkness. He tells us that we don’t have to serve him, just serve ourselves. But, in the end, he gives us death, darkness, and destruction.

On the other hand the kingdom of light, the king is Jesus. He came to Earth, died on a cross for our sins, was buried, and rose again. He says to us, if you will turn from your selfish ways and serve me as your king and receive my forgiveness, I’ll give you light, life, and love for all eternity.

We live in this little bubble called life for 70-80 years, and whenever it pops, whichever king we’ve been serving is where we are going to spend all of eternity. Which king would you like to serve?”
