Revelation Companion

A field guide to the symbols and numbers of Revelation

This isn't meant to settle every interpretive question — just to give you handles as you read. Revelation speaks in pictures. Learning its picture-language helps you read it the way its first hearers did.

Numbers in Revelation

Number	Basic Significance
1	Unity, singularity
2	A sufficient, credible witness
3	Fullness – especially divine fullness
3½ years / 42 months / 1,260 days	A real but limited season of trial, bounded by God
4	The whole created world (four corners, four winds)
6	Falling short – human incompleteness, rebellion
7	Divine Completeness, wholeness, holiness
10	A full or complete period of time
12	God's covenant people (12 tribes, 12 apostles)
1,000	Vastness — a great, uncountable span or number
144,000 (12 x 12 x 1,000)	The entire covenant people of God – complete and immense
Thousands upon Thousands	Limitlessness, innumerability
